

This Document was given to Robert Cain by Dr. Murray in 1978. It shows various vegetable crops and levels of soluble salts or NaCl they will tolerate at different soil moisture levels. It's interesting to note that the vegetables that tolerate the highest levels also provide us with the greatest nutrient density.
The hand written information on the page is Dr. Murrays.